

TECHNICAL SESSION - III

New-age Quality Vocational Education System: Challenges and Perspectives

▶ Technical Session-III : Presentation-III
Assuring Quality in VET in INDIA: Perspective and Challenges

▶ Speaker
Mr. Chiranjiv Guha

ABSTRACT

Assuring quality in VET in India is a broad topic that is need to discuss in the current scenario. Skill development, infrastructure, trade-off quality vs quantity is the challenges in the present era. This paper discusses about quality assurance, framework, policy and achievements. There are various challenges facing in the field of vocational education. There is a need to improve quality of the education and improve the skills. To improve the system ther is a need to understand what are the perspectives of assuring quality in VET and challenges faced by India and also discusses about the future prospects.

BRIEF CV

Mr. Chiranjiv Guha is an experienced professional with a demonstrated history of working in the Public-Private and Private organizations, with Govt. (Central and State), Private and Not-for-profit Sectors, skilled in market research and analysis, program business development & operations strategy. He holds bachelor of Technology (B.Tech) and Master of Business Administration (MBA) specialized in Natural Resource Management and Sustainable Development, with Distinction. He worked in the field of skill development. He worked on various projects, ESRI India (NIIT) and CRISIL Limited (An 'S&P Global' Company), ESRI India (NIIT): Instrumental in imparting utilization of GIS technology in various Departments / Administrative offices (key clientele: Department of Information Technology – IAF, FSI Dehradun, MHA, Rural Electrification Corporation, Delhi Police etc.) and Academic Institutions, across the Country, both at Central and State-level CRISIL Limited, extensively worked with Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, Bureau of Energy Efficiency (Ministry of Power) and various Corporates, Nationally, on Green / Renewable Energy Projects.