

Panel Discussion

Institutional Development for Achieving Excellence in VET

▶ Panellist
Mr. Tahesin Zahid

BRIEF CV

Mr. Tahesin Zahid is a chief executive officer who is working in Vocational and skill development sector for last 17 years at various senior level positions. He has worked in startup ventures throughout the entire career and thus has a vast experience on conceptualizing business ideas, operations, hiring of team and creating SOPs. His last assignment was as a Business head for Saral Rozgar (Tech Mahindra), employability platform for entry level jobseekers. He has also been the business advisor to Lohia Corp for setting up their skills venture. Currently he is the Chief Operating Officer for the Sports Sector Skill Council (SPEFL-SC)-January 2018 onwards. Tahsin has also been the recipient of 'Young Achievers' award from Shericon for contribution in the field of employable education and has also been the finalist of Economic Times 'Power of Idea's'-2009. He has played cricket at district level, has been a sports enthusiast and believes sports shall be an integral part of life for a holistic development of any individual. He has been writing various articles in media on skilling and one of his articles in New York Times on India being the skilled manpower Hub of 21st Century was widely appreciated.